

Prof. Dr. Wolfram Reiss (University of Vienna)
Dr. Triantafylos Tanos (Greece) / Rev. Dr. Magnus Abrahamson (Sweden)

SE 020056

Management of Religious Diversity in European States
New challenges for state institutions, religious communities and academic research in correctional services in Greece, Austria and Sweden

Overview

Arrival: Friday 24.11. afternoon

Departure: Monday 27.11 after 22:00 or Tuesday morning 28.11.

Accommodation: Benediktus-Haus, Freyung (close to the faculty, city center)

Friday, 24.11.2017

Sessions	Time	Topic
	18:30-18:45	Introduction of guest lecturers and overview of workshop/seminar (Prof. Dr. Wolfram Reiss)
I. Management of Religious Diversity in Austria Prof. Dr. Wolfram Reiss
1.	18:45-20:15	1. Religious Diversity in Austrian Prisons and laws regulating religious freedom in correctional services in Austria
	20:30	Dinner with guest lecturers

Saturday, 25.11.2017

2.	09:00-10:45	2. Concepts and organization of prison chaplaincy of different religious groups in correctional services in Austria
	10:45-11:00	Break
3.	11:00-12:30	3. Current initiatives to reorganize the management of religious diversity in correctional services in Austria
	12:30-14:00	Lunch
II. Management of Religious Diversity in Greek Correctional Services Dr. Triantafyllos Tanos, Thessaloniki
	14:00-15:30	1. Religious Diversity in Austrian Prisons and laws regulating religious freedom in correctional services in Greece
	15:30-15:45	Break
	15:45-17:30	2. Concepts and organization of prison chaplaincy of different religious groups in correctional services in Greece
	17:30-18:00	3. Perspectives and current challenges in Greece

Sunday, 26.11.2017

III. Management of Religious Diversity in Swedish Correctional Services Rev. Dr. Magnus Abrahamson, Gothenborg
1.	13:00-14:30	1. Religious Diversity in Scandinavian Prisons and laws regulating religious freedom in correctional services in Sweden
	14:30-14:45	Break
2.	14:45-16:15	2. Concepts and organization of prison chaplaincy of different religious groups in correctional services in Sweden
	16:15-17:00	3. Perspectives and current challenges in Sweden
3.	17:00-17:30	Final conclusion: Commonalities and differences between the three countries Joint challenges
	19:00	Dinner with guests

Monday 27.11.2017

Field visits:

Management of Religious Diversity in Austrian state institutions

9:00-12:00 Prison: JA Josefstadt: Dr. Christian Kuhn (Catholic Chaplain), Dr. Matthias Geist (Protestant Chaplain), Imam Džemal Šibljakovic (Islamic Chaplain),

Break (Rest and preparation of statements)

18:30-20:00 HS 47 Main Hall, Public Panel Discussion:

Management of religious diversity in Correctional Services in European Countries
Challenges for state institutions, religious communities and academic research

Public panel discussion in cooperation with the platform for Religion and Transformation in Contemporary Society, and the Protestant Academy Vienna

Moderation: Prof. Dr. Kurt Appel (speaker of the platform Religion and Transformation in Contemporary Society)

Invitation distributed by

- Faculty of Protestant Theology, University of Vienna
- Platform "Religion and Transformation in Contemporary Society", University of Vienna: Colleagues from departments of Sociology, Catholic Theology, Law
- Austrian Ministry of Justice
- Protestant Academy of Vienna

18:30-18:45 Introduction (Prof. Dr. Kurt Appel)

18:45-19:00 Short 5 minutes statements by

- Dr. Triantafyllos Tanos (Greece)

- Dr. Magnus Abrahamson (Sweden)
- Prof. Dr. Wolfram Reiss (Austria)
- Response from the Ministry of Justice (N.N.)

19:00-19:30 Panel discussion

19:30-20:00 Questions by the auditorium, open discussion

21:00 Dinner with guest lecturers